

Call For Papers

National Society of Allied Health

ANNUAL CONFERENCE

March 23-28, 2012

Charleston, South Carolina

THEME: Promoting HEALTH and WELLNESS through education, research and practice

PRESENTATIONS: Presentations should highlight planning, programs and/or research/intervention strategies/projects that affect academic pursuits and community interactions; with emphasis on communities of color. Though collaborative planning and research/intervention/projects will be favorably accepted, a single source planning and research/intervention/project is also solicited with favor.

ABSTRACTS:

- Should provide a cogent and concise description of the research/intervention/project;
- Should be no longer than 350 words in length;
- Must be submitted no later than the DEADLINE – December 5, 2011;
- Should be submitted to: 2012confabstracts@gmail.com.

Additionally, a BRIEF biosketch of the author(s)/presenter(s) – limit 3-4 sentences, 250 words for each presenter/author – must be included.

Questions/concerns may be addressed to: Dr. Gene Gary-Williams:
Voice mail – 240.704.1027 or email – ggarywilliams@gmail.com.

Faculty, students and community based allied health/nursing professionals are invited to participate in the Conference.